Enjoy the best of both worlds, where country life meets city living...

Castlehill presents the perfect fusion of substance and style for all homebuyers.

Situated off the Ballygowan Road in Belfast, residents will enjoy a development that fits seamlessly into leafy surroundings, while presenting homes defined by architectural style and the highest build quality. Few places deliver such an ideal semi-rural location within an area where the vibrant metropolitan landscape of South East Belfast merges into the quiet calm of the Co. Down countryside.

Enjoy the peaceful ambience and country walks of the immediate area as well as the vibrancy of Belfast city centre, just four miles away. Even closer to hand, and just under five minutes from Castlehill, is the coffee culture and cuisine heartland of Ballyhackamore, an area which has stolen the crown as Belfast's trendiest culinary hotspot. The village style of this area offers an eclectic combination of fabulous eateries, cafés, boutiques and shops. What makes Castlehill such a special place to live is its unrivalled accessibility to a vast array of amenities, venues and activities that contribute to a superb lifestyle experience. Residents can unwind in the great outdoors with a choice of local parklands and riverside walks, while golfers are only a few minutes away from the acclaimed 18-hole Shandon Park Golf Club. For those that enjoy keeping fit, the David Lloyd fitness centre is close by, as is the cycling splendour of the magnificent Comber Greenway.

The more practical necessities are also well catered for, including a superb range of schools from nursery through to secondary school. Grocery stores, supermarkets and high street brands are available in the immediate area, and at the Forestside Shopping Complex just under three miles away. For travelling around the city and further afield, the Metro bus network is accessible from the Ballygowan Road, and the Knock Dual Carriageway carriageway provides an easy connection to the M1 and M2 motorway networks.
